FROM THE WEST.

(From the Reese River Reveille.)

San Francisco, March 22.

Gold sold in New York yesterday at 134¼. Legal tenders are quiet at 74¼ buying, and 74¾ selling.

Solomon H. Litchenson, aged 20 years, a native of St. Louis, and G. Sayre, a native of New York, were committed to Stockton last evening as insane.

James Conlin, lately a laborer in the employ of the San Jose Railroad Company, has commenced suit to-day in the Fourth District Court against the company to recover damages for personal injury. He was employed in moving a car by turning a crank, when some machinery gave way and the crank struck him violently, throwing him under the car. Some of his bones were crushed and his right arm disabled. The giving away of the machine was the fault of the company. He sets the damage by loss of the use of his arm at $2,500.

In the Clark-Reese breech of promise case, the testimony for the plaintiff is all in. The testimony for the defense is now being taken, some of which is unfit for publication. Some rich disclosures are being made, all of which is eagerly received and digested by the immense crowd in attendance in the Courtroom. The case will probably be concluded to-morrow, and every one is eager to hear the arguments by counsel, as both are considered au fait in cases of this kind.

San Francisco, March 23.

The Japanese Commissioners yesterday visited Woodward's garden, and expressed themselves greatly pleased. They called at the sugar refinery, and were shown through the entire establishment. They then proceeded to Lone Mountain Cemetary, to inspect the graves of their countrymen there. They had prayers with them from the mothers of the deceased for their happiness. The Japanese Government has been very kind to the families of the Japanese seamen who died in California.

James Wilkinson yesterday brought suit against the Alta newspaper for $20,000, damages for an alleged libelous article published on the 14th of November last, in which plaintiff is charged with being a thief, etc.

In the Fifteenth District Court William H. Taber sues J. A. McGlynn to recover $20,000 for personal injuries alledged to have been received through the carelessness of defendant in leaving his horse and buggy unhitched in Third street in November last.

The district attorney has made a motion for a new trial in the case of the United States against one hundred and eighty cases of white wine, recently decided against the government.

NEVADA MINES.—The Enterprise of the 23d contains the following:

The Eclipse Mining Company, Gold Hill, are at present taking out a considerable amount of surface ore of a good quality, as is also the case at the Trench claim. Most of the mining companies holding ground in Gold Hill proper are preparing to work out their surface ore.

The combined shipments of Gold Hill and Virginia for the week ending yesterday, were eight tons and two hundred and nineteen pounds, worth $464,755 55—almost half a million dollars.

We yesterday saw at the office of Dorwin, in this city, a brick weighing something over 1,200 ounces and worth $2 166 84. which was the product of the ore from the Occidental, a mine situated about a mile and a half from the Comstock, in the direction of the town of Dayton. The brick contained in silver $1,473 38, and in gold $693 48. This shows that there is something outside of the Comstock after all that is worth having.

The amount of bullion shipped or received for assay during the past week: From the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., in this city, there were shipped 9,470 pounds of assayed bullion, valued at $254,660 44: from their office in Gold Hill. 6,749 pounds, valued at $210,095 11. The amount of crude bullion received for melting and assay is as follows: Theall & Co., of this city, 7,588 ounces; E. Rubling & Co., of this city, 22,942 ounces; Leopold Kuh, of this city, 2,430 ounces; Geo. W. Dorwin, of this city, 1,800 ounces; Edwards & Weigand, Gold Hill, 11,344 ounces; H. Harris, of Gold Hill, 2,573 ounces; Van Wyck & Co., Gold Hill, 20,588 ounces.

SNIPE SHOOTING.—A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, (George W. Stout writing from Yolo, March 16th, gives the following experince on snipe shooting, which is not bad:

In your weekly edition of March 16th, I saw an article on snipe shooting on the Calaveras by O. P. F. Kallenback and H. C. Brown, two gentlemen of Stockton, which I think I have beaten, and have no doubt but you will agree with me after reading the following: I started from my place of residence, which is about ten miles below Sacramento City, on the Sacramento river, on Thursday, March 14th, paddled a canoe five miles, against the current, did eight hours shooting, killed 75 English snipe, and returned home by 5 o'clock. Started out the next morning at 8 o'clock to prospect for snipe ground; went eight miles, shot 26 snipe while prospecting, found ground, quit shooting at noon; returned eight miles against current, arrived home at 3½ o'clock. Started again on Saturday morning at 7 o'clock for the prospected ground; arrived at 8½ o'clock; began shooting, and had 57 snipe at half-past 11 (three hours); took an hour and a half rest; began again, and killed 34 snipe more; quit shooting at 4 o'clock and returned, arriving at home at 7 o'clock, making a total of six hours shooting by one man of 91 birds.

We understand that Stout had no dog on his shooting excursions and retrieved his own birds.

A RARE SPECIMEN.—Under this head the Virginia Enterprise of the 23d has the following spicy account:

Mr. E. Rubling of the firm of Rubling & Co., assayers, has turned out many large, beautiful and valuable bricks from his establishment, and has by unvarying correctness established an enviable reputation for accuracy in his business. The last specimen of his industry and skill, however—publicly exhibited yesterday—is perhaps his masterpiece, though its weight is but 10 pounds avoirdupois. According to the [illegible] beautiful specimen brick is [illegible]. Further particulars will be found in another [illegible] under the head of "Born."

The following announcement appears under the proper head of "Born."

In Virginia, March 22, to the [illegible] Rubling, a 10-pound son.

Salt Lake City, November 5, 1866.

Like Sherman's Lozenges,

"Everybody Buys 'Em."

It has been a source of a good deal of surprise on the part of many that Congress, session after session, has evinced so much apathy concerning the chronic state of affairs in Utah. Every now and then some Senator or Representative at Washington seems to wake up to the flagrant violation of the Anti-Polygamy law, and introduces some measure designed to meet the evil. After considerable talk, a good deal of ebulition of feeling, and not a little expenditure of virtuous indignation, the whole thing is squelched, "peters out," or goes to sleep in some Committee—and Congress adjourns. Every now and then, too, some newspaper correspondent informs the world that the Utah Delegate is a social, convivial individual, and by his genial, winning ways "comes it over" the balance of the sages. The other day we printed an extract from the Washington correspondence of the San Francisco Bulletin, wherein it was more than hinted that some Congressmen, prominent in Utah affairs, had been bought up in the interest of Mormondom. We have seen private letters from Washington lately which suggest that gold and greenbacks have this winter been very efficient in staying action by Congress on this subject.

These are grave and serious matters, but if we should charge (as everybody believes) that Mormon money is being used at Washington to corrupt legislators, how the Saints and their organs would howl and growl at the slanders of the VEDETTE. While we have refrained from pointing out specifically those little great men, whom public rumor at Washington freely designates as the recipients of "thirty pieces of silver," and who are popularly supposed to share tithing money, we have not failed to note their course in Congress on the Utah question. That course has not, in our estimation, tended to relieve their names from the suspicions which cling to them. But we acknowledge that we hardly expected our Mormon friends, even in the jubilance of anticipated triumph, to confess that bribery at Washington was one of the tenets of their faith and the basis of their confident hopes of controlling legislation. "Out of the fullness of the heart the mouth speaketh" oft times, and not unfrequently very foolishly. In the course of an article tracing the similarity between the Jews and the Mormons, our Saintly cotemporary, the Telegraph, in Thursday's issue, makes the following unexpected and rather imprudent confession. We take the liberty of italicizing a few sentences, though if our italics would hold out, we should prefer to italicize the entire extract, for it is a gem, in its way;

We may refer to another particular in which this cognateness is observable. The Jews are great in the arts of peace, and particularly in finance. It is a common saying that the Rothchilds, by their purse strings power, exercise no mean influence over the shape and color of European politics. The Mormon chiefs are moving in a similar direction. It is common enough to read in the newspapers, of "long heads," "great executive and financial ability," and well secured "piles of the needful," as characteristic of the chiefs of the Mormon church, while for industry and application to the arts of peace the Mormons have evinced an aptitude that in a few years must place them in the van in those respects.

We see occasionally in American [one would think this were an English or other foreign editor writing in a foreign land.—ED. VEDETTE] papers broad hints of this corporate body and that corporate body, this Legislature and that Legislature and even Congress being particularly sensitive to money arguments, that cash will carry any measure through. Now if the Mormons, like the Jews, have a habit of making to themselves friends of the unrighteous Mammon, the god of this world, it will not be very difficult for them to control quite a heap of politics in the New World, as their counterparts, the Jews, may do in the Old World, and would it not be a very curious thing if in a few years the polygamic Jews should control politics in the Eastern Hemisphere, and the polygamic Mormons in the Western Hemisphere?

Congressmen ought to peruse the foregoing choice extract, and some we wot of would, we suspect, blush as they read. The Saints, like other honest folk, while they may love the treason, despise the traitor. They may compass the corruption, even while they spurn and taunt (we'd give a penny if they'd expose) the corrupted. We do not much doubt that the good fortune they have had in their dealings with Congressmen, heretofore, has inspired them with the prophetic vision so happily expressed in the above extract, that Brigham will one day be able to buy up the Government and control the nation.

While Rothchilds is managing matters and buying up the Sovereigns in Europe, Brigham will attend to the little concern of purchasing Congress and the American Government! Bully for Rothchilds. Bully for Brigham—but shame on those committeemen of Congress who have given plausibility and foundation for the boast.

HYDRAULIC GOLD GLEANER.—Mr. Charles Schofield, of Havilah, Kern County, has invented what he calls a Hydraulic Gold Gleaner, which is described as follows in the Courier of that place: The crushed rock is conveyed through sluices into a box with a sieve for a bottom. About six inches below this is another box, the bottom of which is lined with quicksilver. Water is conveyed from any desired height by means of a pipe, and flows up through the sieve. This action of the water carries off all the light gravel, etc., while the gold, sulphurets, etc., resist the action of the water and fall through the sieve into the lower box containing quicksilver, where any desired number of faucets are affixed, with which to regulate the current of water flowing up through the sieve and at the same time to draw off the sulphurets. One of these is now in operation at Bigler's mill, near this place. The inventor offers $100 per ounce for all the gold which may be extracted from the tailings of this machine.

Washington, March 28.

The President has approved the bill providing that, from and after Tuesday next, wrapping paper made of wood, cornstalks, etc., shall be exempt from internal revenue tax. Also the bill providing that all National and State banks, and municipal corporations, shall pay a tax of 10 per centum on all scrip paid out by them after May 1st, 1867.

Washington, March 28.

The Senate bill which passed the House yesterday, to amend the Wool Tariff, went through with but slight amendment.

Washington, March 28.

In the Senate, a joint resolution relative to the transportation of troops via the Isthmus of Panama to the Pacific, was adopted.

A bill confirming the sales of lands by District Tax Commissioners of South Carolina to persons in the army and the Navy marine corps, passed.

The Adjournment resolution was then considered, and, after some debate, an amendment was offered by Edmunds, of Vt., providing for an adjournment on Saturday, the 30th inst., to the first Wednesday of July, and then, unless otherwise ordered, sine die, which was adopted by 11 majority; and the proposition was then passed as amended, and sent to the House.

The House bill to fix the time of going into operation of the Bankrupt law at June 1st, which had been referred to the Judiciary Committee and reported adversely, came up. Conness, of Cal., moved to strike out the proviso that nothing in the Act be construed to invalidate any conveyance made in good faith prior to the taking effect of the Act. Pending discussion, the Senate went into Executive session.

When the doors were opened, the Senate received a message from the House announcing its non-concurrence in the Senate's amendment to the Adjournment resolution. The Senate refused to recede, and voted a Committee of Conference.

Senate adjourned.

Washington, March 28.

In the House, the resolutions of the recent Maryland Union Convention were discussed at length. Thomas, of Md., supported the resolutions, utterly denying that there was a republican form of government in that State. He believed Congress had the power, and should pass an enabling act giving equal laws to the people of Maryland. Eldridge, of Wis., characterized the claim as monstrous. Brooks, of N. Y., argued that the same inequality of representation as was complained of in Maryland existed in Maine, Connecticut and other States, and that a really republican government existed in no State. He believed that to adopt the proposition of the gentleman from Maryland would amount to a subversion of the whole structure of Government, and the consolidation of the worst kind of despotism. The resolutions were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Various propositions relative to an adjournment of Congress were introduced. The House finally agreed to adjourn at noon to-morrow, to meet on the 5th of June next.

Ingersoll, of Ill., introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, providing that all male citizens, over 21 years of age, having the qualifications of electors for members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature in their respective States, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, without disqualification on account of race or color, or previous condition. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A joint resolution relative to reimbursing Donahue, Ryan & Secor for losses sustained in building the ironclad Camanche, at San Francisco, was amended by fixing the relief granted at $179,000, and passed.

Banks, of Mass., introduced a bill making eight hours a day's work for mechanics, workmen and laborers employed by or on behalf of the United States Government. The bill passed.

Senate amendment to the Adjournment resolution was non-concurred in by 34 majority, and a Committee of Conference asked.

Senate amendment to the House resolution amending the Wool Tariff Act, was agreed to. It puts lastings of mohair cloth on the free list.

House adjourned.

The Herald's Richmond correspondence says that in Virginia the work of reconstruction is progressing rapidly. Even the most fanatical ex-rebels express themselves anxious to co-operate with General Schofield. A better labor system will probably develop itself the coming year than heretofore, when such matters worked very unsatisfactorily, as the negroes were only concerned about their newly acquired liberty.

The Times says that General Fullerton, in his testimony before the Judiciary Committee in connection with the impeachment matter, was called on to answer questions regarding the contents of letters brought to him in Louisiana from President Johnson, by persons whose lands and other confiscated property was afterwards restored to them. NEW AMALGAMATOR.—Mr. Andrew Hunter has invented a new machine for saving gold, called the Eureka Rubber and Amalgamator. It seems to answer the purpose for which it is intended, and marks another step forward in the improvement of machinery for saving gold extracted from quartz. This machine differs from the ordinary amalgamator. It has an oscillating movement, the bottom having strips of wood and iron alternately on end. The rubbers are made of wood, covered with copper plates and shod with iron. The sides are lined with copper. The pulp passes from the machine on to a table covered with copper plate, with an oscillating motion. The machine and table have at least 30 square feet of copper plate, with 60 movements to the minute. The power to run the machine is about the fourth of a horse power. The wear of iron is about 1-16th of an inch a month on the shoes. Mr. Wm. Watt, of Grass Valley, writes as follows concerning the new Amalgamator: after a trial of two weeks of your Eureka rubber and amalgamator we have cleaned up, and found it has saved seventy-five cents per ton over and above what we got from the copper plates of the other batteries; we run through it all the pulp that passed over the blankets from five stamps; this result is from rock that pays forty dollars per ton. I am highly pleased with it, and I think it is the best machine after blankets or plates I ever saw. It reduces the coarse particle of sand and makes the pulp more uniform in size, and it requires very little power to drive it. But the best recommendation I can give it is that I want four more. Will you please to go to the Vulcan Foundry and order them.—S. F. Daily Times.

RED JACKET, the famous Indian chief, was a celebrated orator. Col. Snelling, of the United States army, was a great friend of the Indian chief, and being ordered to Governor's Island, Red Jacket addressed him as follows: "Brother, I hear you are going to a place called Governor's Island. I hope you will be a Governor yourself. I understand you white people think children a blessing. I hope you will have a thousand. And above all, I hope, wherever you go, you may never find whisky above two shillings a quart."

DIED.—B. F. Boutwell, generally known as "Balty," and for a long time a resident of Gold Hill and Virginia, died in Sacramento last evening, at 6 o'clock. He was a member of Engine Company No. 1, Virginia.—Gold Hill News.

From the North.

The Owyhee Avalanche of the 21st says:

We learn from a gentleman who has been sojourning somewhere near White Horse Creek, that Gen. Crook has returned with the greater part of his command to Camp Smith. He had to endure some very severe weather, had one sergeant frozen to death, and many men badly frostbit. One scouting party is supposed to be lost, as they were out some eight days longer than they had rations for, and no word from them. Captain Walker had found a large force of Indians, but he was not strong enough to attack them. He had had a terrible time, had to contend with deep snow and storm for 14 days, and was now near the Indians.

We learn that the Indians are still troublesome, notwithstanding the numerous flagellations they have received from General Crook. Quite a lot of stock was stolen, from parties residing in Jordan valley, last week. Mr. Hill, we understand, lost several head of horses by three Indian marauders. They had better look out for the vengeance of the white man unalloyed by any christian virtue.

The Montana Post contains the following: Messrs. Housel & Andrews started another train for Salmon river, on Monday. The wagons go within thirty-five miles of the mines, from which point the goods are carried over by pack-train. A pack train of a baker's dozen of mules loaded at Messrs. Pfouts & Russell's yesterday for the same point. The goods are owned by Messrs. Stearns & Smith. Freight charges, 15 cents per pound. Wagons are loaded and depart daily, and the exodus of miners continues unabated.

Weston's train which left for Salmon some days ago, was unable to proceed further than Horse Prairie creek on account of the deep snow, and intense cold, and had to unload and return. Four of the men were frozen badly, only one of whom returned to Virginia.

A new silver lode has recently been struck in Jefferson county, in the neighborhood of the Prickly Pear, which, from present indications promises to rank as one of the finest of the kind in the Territory. The lode at the present time has a shaft on it to the depth of eighteen feet, which exposes a well defined crevice twelve feet wide, the ore from which, as assayed by Mr. Charles Rumley, gives a yield of $62.83 per ton. We understand that it is the intention of the parties owning it to immediately prosecute the work on it, and carry the present shaft down to the depth of one hundred feet. The lode is easy of access, with plenty of timber in its vicinity for all necessary uses, and first class mill privileges near at had, thus, in this respect, enjoying all the facilities necessary for its successful development.

We hear rumors of a big strike in gulch diggings having been made lately, in the vicinity of Eagle gulch. but know nothing of the particulars, as those who are in the secret are as close and uncommunicative as an oyster.

The Walla Walla Statesman says:

George Green, formerly a packer of this place, shot and killed a man by the name of Barneyburg, recently, while traveling from Montana to Arizona. It appears that Green had some difficulty with a courtesan, and in attempting to shoot her, accidentally shot Barneyburg.

Green was quite well known in Owyhee, as one of the volunteer soldiers with Col. Jennings in his Indian campaign last July, and who was wounded in a melee among the volunteers.

Capt. Oscar J. Converse, for several months commanding officer at Fort Walla Walla, has been relieved, and ordered to join his regiment, the 14th Infantry. Lt. Force, of the 1st Cavalry, succeeds to the command of the post.

The Lewiston Journal says:

Wm. Anderson came in a few days ago from the Palouse mines, and reports the men all at work.

In the Quegley claims three men cleaned up $86 in one days run—coarse gold. Says also that there is an abundance of water for sluicing.

Two more gulches in the same vicinity prospects about the same as the former.

Wagoner's bridge on the Palouse is finished and ready for travel.

The snow has nearly all disappeared.

Mr. Evens, from Gnat Creek, fifteen miles south of Palouse diggings—reports about twenty-two men in camp. All working and making from four to six dollars a day. Stripping from eighteen inches to two feet—but water scant for sluicing on account of frosty nights.

BOAT RACE.—The whale-boats General Grant and lady Grant, which daily ply between this city and French Camp, a distance of thirteen miles, started from French Camp yesterday afternoon, each about equally loaded with passengers. The General Grant brought in the passengers from Mariposa, while the Lady Grant contained the passengers who came by stage from Sonora. Each boat, representing a different line of stages, tried the metal of their oarsmen in a race to the landing in Stockton. The shortest time taken was one hour and twenty one minutes, the General making thirteen minutes better time than the Lady.—Stockton Independent, 19th.

A STRAW will make an impression on the virgin snow. Let it remain a short time and a horse's hoof can hardly penetrate it. So it is with the youthful mind. A trifling word may make an impression on it, but after a few years the most powerful appeals may cease to influence it. Think of this, ye who have the training of the infant mind, and leave such an impression thereon as will be safe for it to carry amid the follies and temptations of the world.

THE lakes in the Regents Park are still being dragged for bodies, and divers were engaged in trying to bring them to the surface. There were still numbers of them missing, although nearly 50 in all had been recovered. The Marquis de Buisay, a French nobleman, was among the unfortunates.

LOUIS A. GARNETT, ...President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr., Chemist and Superintendent

This Company having greatly enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin Made in Forty-Eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

830 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.
865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. [mr21-3m-is

TROOPS ON THE PLAINS.—General Sherman says the troops of his Department have been placed in position to afford protection to the telegraph and mail lines across the plains. The troops are placed on the four principal emigrant roads. A portion of the troops will occupy garrisons, and the remainder will be detailed on expeditions between the posts. Hancock has organized a special force of 1,500 with which he will proceed in person to the country of the Cheyennes and Kiowas, below the Arkansas, to ascertain if their intentions are peaceable. General Gibbons will lead a force of about 2,000 to the heart of the Powder and Yellowstone river country and punish the hostile Sioux who have infested that road for the past year and killed many people. He will now open war upon them, and no mercy will be shown these Indians, for they grant none. General Augur is instructed to notify all Sioux who wish to avoid the fate of the hostile fellows, to come into some military post on the Platte. No hostilities will be commenced till the Commissioners appointed by Congress have visited the Indians and tried pacific measures.

THE CONSTITUTION OF DESERET.—New York, March 23.—The Constitution of Deseret was introduced in the House by Hooper. It is similar to the one of the Thirty-Seventh Congress, with two or three exceptions. The boundaries are the same as Utah. The words "free white" are omitted, giving universal suffrage. The Legislature is prohibited passing laws infringing the right of conscience and religious worship. The Herald says early action will probaly be taken on it in Congress.

Grasshoppers.

Mr. Wm. J. Allen, of Kansas City, in a letter to the Advertiser, gives the following as his experience in reference to the perplexing Grasshopper question:

In Rogue river valley, Southern Oregon, where I was then living, the grasshoppers—the same identical insect we had here last fall, call them what you will—came in such clouds that what we had here was no comparison. They destroyed everything green on the face of the earth. A valley, too, that was luxuriant with grass and all kinds of vegetation, was left like a desert place. The fruit trees were all destroyed, and even the mistletoe on the oaks did not escape the ravagers. The farming community became so disheartened that lots of them sold for what they could get and left the valley in disgust. They being inexperienced, reasoned the matter about as some do here: that the eggs would be hatched, and consequently would be more numerous the next year; but their fears were entirely unbounded for the next year there was none to do any damage.

Shasta Valley, Northern California, is probably more troubled with grasshoppers than any other portion of the United States, and yet they never have them two years in succession. The same is true of Scots, Henry Lake, Sierra, Long Carson, and other valleys. In 1857 they eat everything green in Salt Lake Valley, and came near starving the Mormons out; since which time Brigham keeps one year's supply ahead. Knowing that they will not come the second year, it is useless for me to bring any more proof to establish as well known a fact that they do not reappear from the eggs to do any damage in a country like this. It is only when they come from the dry, hot plains, as was the case here, that they do any damage. Even the naturalist, to whom some specimens were sent from Leavenworth, ascerted the same thing with a very learned piece of advice to destroy all the eggs possible.

I would say to the farming community that they need not have any fears of those appearing from the eggs to do any damage, no more than though they never had been here. That they need have no fears about the grain which was sowed after they left, and now that the time for sowing spring wheat is on hand, I hope that any one will not be deterred from doing so, on account of the frivolous nonsense about grasshoppers.

Oiling a Ventriloquist.—A gentleman going down the river on a steamer, the engine of which was upon the deck, sauntered out to see the working of the machinery. Near him stood a man apparently bent on the same object. In a short time a squeaking noise was heard on the opposite side of the engine. Seizing the oil can—a gigantic one by the way, the engineer sought the dry spot, and to prevent further noise of that kind liberally applied the contents of the can to every joint. All went on well for a while, when the squeaking was heard in another direction. The oiling process was repeated and quiet restored, but as the engineer was coming quietly toward the spot occupied by the gentleman and the stranger he heard another squeak. This time he detected the true cause of the difficulty. The stranger was a ventriloquist. Walking straight up behind him, he seized the astonished joker by the nape of the neck and emptied the contents of the can down his back. "There," said he, "I don't believe that old engine will squeak again."—[Western Paper.]

A Description of Heaven.—Revelation, xxi. chapter, 16th verse: "And he measured the city with a reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, breadth and height of it are equal." Twelve thousand furlongs, 7,920,000 feet, which being cubed, is 948,088,000,000,000,000,000,000 cubic feet; the half of which we will reserve for the throne of God and the Court of Heaven; half of the balance for the streets, and the remainder divide by 4.96, the cubical feet in the rooms 19 feet square and 16 feet high, will be 5,743,750,000,000 rooms. We will now suppose the world always did and always will contain 900,000,000 of inhabitants, and a generation will last 33⅓ years—2,700,000 every century, and that the world will stand 100,000 years—27,000,000,000 persons. Then suppose there were 11,230, such worlds, equal to this number of inhabitants, and duration of years, then there would be a room 16 feet long, and 17 wide, and 15 high, for each person; and yet there would be room.

Drowned.—Henry Mull, a native of Hesse, while dumping a cartload of filth from Meiggs' wharf, on the 13th inst., fell overboard, or the horse backed the cart over with him on it, and both horse and man were lost.—Sacramento Bee.

A Johnson Compliment.—The San Francisco Examiner has been designated as the paper in California to publish the laws of the last session of the Thirty-ninth Congress.

EXPOSURE, SUFFERING AND DEATH.—The Montana Post, of March 9th, says:

We anticipated hearing of intense suffering from the effects of the recent arctic weather that visited us, but if the instances which have fallen under our notice are a criterion to judge by, the amount of suffering must have been terrible. We give below a statement of the hardships endured by six persons, that carry a thrill of horror to every breast, and awake a feeling of sympathy in every heart. A party of miners who worked last summer at Rocker, in Silver Bow, last fall went over to Highland, for the purpose of wintering. On the 18th ult., four of them, including two called Tucker and "Arkansaw," started to return to Rocker, twenty-three miles distant, carrying their blankets, etc., with them. During the afternoon they started on a "cut off" trail by which they expected to save some six miles. The snow was very deep and crusted, but not sufficiently so to bear up their weight, and the fatigue was so great that, when within a mile and a half of Butte City, they became completely exhausted and laid down on the snow—to die. This was before sunset, and all were more or less frozen at the time. The other, Arkansaw, formerly of Nevada, being the least frozen, determined to make an endeavor to reach the road, and finally succeeded, falling exhausted and frozen at the road side. Here he laid that night and the next day until 3 P. M., before any one passed, when Mr. Humphries of Butte City, found him. He found the others still lying where they had first stopped, and took the entire party to Rocker. They were horribly frozen, and their story of lying there helpless, while from the mining camp, scarce two miles distant, came the sound of voices, the echoes of the axe and the careless laugh; while the fire-lights of the village taunted them with their misery, as they lay there slowly freezing, freezing to death, in the terrible snow and the merciless storm, and the darkness, "uncared for, unknown," is described as heart rending. Tucker is frozen black to the thighs; Arkansaw's right leg to the thigh and his left knee. The other two are frozen nearly to the knees, and it is believed they will have to suffer amputation. Our informant, Mr. Nelson, states that Dr. Griffin, of Deer Lodge, was attending the unfortunate men.

On the 12th ult., Archie McCurdy, of this city, in company with a Mr. Painter and boy, started from Bannack. On the range between Ten-Mile creek and Horse Prairie, McCurdy became so cold and lethargic that he could not keep up with the others, and they had to abandon him. They reached the Twelve-Mile ranch slightly frozen. Returning the next day, they found the bodies of McCurdy and his horse, a few feet separated, both frozen to death. He was brought to Bannack for interment. Deceased was from Lafayette, Indiana, and formerly a Captain or Adjutant of the 15th Indiana.

John S. Higgins started from Hot Springs for this place, on the 15th. He also was advised to take a cut-off, which he did. In crossing some of the branches of Slade's gulch his boots were filled with water and his feet frozen solid. To add to his misery, he became confused and lost his way. Night came on and he was alone on the mountain, lost in the snow, his feet hanging to him like masses of ice. All the night he kept moving around, floundering in the snow-drifts, and by this saved his life. He reached Virginia about 9 o'clock in the morning and was kindly cared for by his friends. His feet were frozen perfectly solid, and one who attended him says; "You could have knocked off his toes like glass." He is now under good treatment and is getting along very well.

FRIGHTFUL SCENE IN COURT.—A terrible scene occurred in a court-room, Boston, March 1st. William H. Orne, who was convicted in July last of setting fire to a building in Charlestown, was granted a new trial, and to-day he was found guilty of the charge preferred against him by the Superior Court at East Cambridge. After the finding of the the jury, the prisoner was asked by the Judge if he had anything to say why sentence should no be pronounced against him.

Orne made a short speech, in which he declared his innocence, and at its conclusion unbuttoned his vest, and throwing it open, displayed in his hand a hideous knife which had been passed to him suddenly by a friendly spectator. Coolly and desperately he pointed the weapon at his breast, and then plunged it three times into his body within a few inches of the heart. The Court and spectators were for the time overcome by this extraordinary attempt at suicide, and it was several minutes before any one dared approach the prisoner.

Orne sunk to the floor, bleeding profusely, and was taken out of the Court room amid deathly silence, and conveyed to the jail on a stretcher. He was living at a late hour the same evening.

A GENTLEMAN who was engaged in the telegraphic expedition in Siberia, relates the following incident in a letter to a friend in Cincinnati: "I met with a Korak woman of about twenty-two years of age, on the great Tundra (marked Kerau on the map) who drove a team of reindeers with a loaded sledge, fifty verts in one day, and at night slept out in the snow, with no covering whatever, except the clothes she had worn during the day, and in a temperature 43 degrees below zero, or 75 degrees below the freezing point. Think of that, ye effeminate ladies of America. That I saw myself, although even to me it seems incredible now. I thought it an extraordinary thing to sleep in a reindeer tent in such weather, and I should have frozen to death in two hours had I attempted to sleep without it. She traveled with us driving her own reindeers, and sleeping on the snow every night."

A CASE FOR LAWYERS.—Before Recorder Meagher, this morning, in the case of the States vs. Three women of the Town, Fred. Cole appeared as attorney for the State or rather for City Attorney Hoover, to prosecute the case. District Attorney Bishop also appeared and claimed to be the proper official to prosecute all cases where a misdemeanor is set forth in the complaint. Recorder Meagher decided that the City Attorney's proxy, Mr. Cole, should proceed with the case. District Attorney Bishop then entered his protest to the ruling, and asked that the Court order a nolle prosequi, which request was complied with and defendants discharged. It seems that the statutes conflict as to which officer is the proper attorney, and we presume the case will go up on appeal to a higher Court for adjudication. Good joke on the girls.—Virginia Trespass.

STORMING IN THE MOUNTAINS.—The Virginia Enterprise, of March 23d, has the following: "A dispatch last evening from Mr. Smith, telegraph operator at Yank's Station, on the Placerville road, to Mr. Gray of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s in this city, states that it was snowing hard at that point all day yesterday, with a fair prospect of the continuance of the storm throughout the night. He did not give the depth of the new snow; we presume, however, that the fall was not sufficiently great to seriously interfere with the passage of the stages over the route. At Cisco there was also deep snow yesterday. The depth up to last evening was about one foot. The storm did not seriously impede travel either by the railroad or wagon road, and the stages and cars connected as usual. Should there come a depth of eighteen inches or two feet of new snow upon the old and glassy fields of snow now covering the steep mountains about the summit, there would be very great danger of snow-slides, or avalanches. Here the weather yesterday was cold and freezing, with, towards evening, gusts of snow from passing clouds, but no settled storm."

A TERRIBLE DEATH.—The Appleton (Wis.) Crescent gives an account of the killing of Christian Trussel, some weeks ago, in the woods, in Dale, Outagamie county, in a most singular and terrific accident, as follows:

It appears that a party of men were in the woods with him, cutting a fallow, and where they were chopping two large trees had been felled — one across the other — balancing nearly. The man who was killed was chopping near these trees, and another party having a large tree about ready to bring down, hailed him to look out—when he ran and stood on the top of the balancing tree to see the other come down. The men then brought the tree to the ground, which struck the other end of the tree on which Trussel was standing; and the tremendous weight of it coming upon the spring lever, threw him like a shot into the air upwards of eighty feet! In coming down, one of his legs from his knee to his hip was shattered to atoms, and the back of his head was stove in. He came down head first. He was taken up with some life in him, but soon expired. He leaves a family of four fatherless and motherless children.

A MILITARY ORDER.—Major General Hancock has issued an order prescribing the regulations for travel on the plains this season. They are substantially the same as heretofore. Fort Larned is designated as the point of rendezvous for trains en route to New Mexico via the Arkansas and Cimmeron route, also to points in Colorado, via the Arkansas river; Fort Harker, for trains en route for Denver, or other points in Colorado, and westward, via the Smoky Hill route; and Fort Riley for all trains via the Republican Fork, to points on the Platte. These posts can be reached from the Missouri river without danger. In case of Indian hostilities occuring hereafter in the neighborhood of Forts Larned or Harker, Fort Riley is designated as the point of rendezvous for all trains going west, in this Department. The department consists of the States of Missouri and Kansas, and the Territories of Colorado and New Mexico, and is known as the "Department of Missouri."

WE learn yesterday says the Carson Appeal, of the 23d, that the wife of Mr. James Day, of the Double Springs Ranch, sixteen miles this side of Wellington's, was found drowned, about noon of Friday, by her husband, in the large spring under their house. It would seem that she had gone to the spring for a bucket of water alone, and had lost her balance and fallen in, head foremost, and, unable to extricate herself, was drowned before assistance could reach her.

PERSONS when born can expect about forty-nine years of life. If they live one year their chances are good for 45; at 5 for 57; at 10 for 59; at 20 for 61; at 30 for 64; at 40 for 67; at 50 for 71; at 60 for 74; at 70 for 80; at 80 for 85; at 90 for 94; at 100 for 102, for 113 we can promise not quite one year more of life. We get this from an old life insurance table. Women average longer lives than men, and married people live longer than single ones.

THE Yreka (Cal. Journal says there is suspicion of Ross McCloud and a man named Anderson, who left there recently for the North via Klamath Lake with a band of cattle, being murdered by the Indians. Their cabin was found burned and no tidings of them learned in the vicinity or at the ferries, though it may be possible that they are all safe with their cattle in another quarter.

COLORADO PAPER.—The Colorado Register says: "Captain Geo. West swears he will publish the Fourth of July edition of his Transcript on paper manufactured at Golden City, or perish ignominiously. What shocking rashness that fellow exhibits at times. He wants a straight jacket."

AT Portland, Maine, recently, while the "Star Spangled Banner" was being sung at a theatrical performance, a fellow in the audience hissed it. After compelling the culprit to give three cheers for the play, he was summarily jected.

THE Colorado Register says: Lieutenant Charley Cass, one of the famous hundred-dozens who fought, bled and froze at and around the battle field of Sand Creek, is a candidate for Marshal of Denver, at the coming municipal election.

THE Denver Daily says: "An exchange says that some time ago a female seminary was established in Salt Lake City. It flourished well—but in the height of its prosperity the Mormon principal eloped with and "married" the whole school!"

MOTTOES.—The lawyer's motto—Be brief. The doctor's motto—Be patient. The potter's motto—Beware. The type-setter's motto—Be composed.

A BOY'S idea of having a tooth drawn may be summed up as follows: "The doctor hitched a fast on me, pulling his best, and just before it killed me the tooth came out."
